Entertain

TURKEYS, ..... 42c DUCK, lb. ..... 32c PHILA. CHICKEN, lb. . 32c BROILERS, lb. ..... 75c GUINEAS, ..... $1.00

King Oranges Tangerines Pears Pineapples, Oranges Florida Navals Spitz Apples
Rome Apples
Greening Apples
Delicious Apples
Wine Sap Apples.

String Beans Cauliflower Egg Plant Cucumbers Tomatoes Lettuce Chicary Oyster Plant Sweet Potatoes New Potatoes Sweet Onions New Beets Celery

AND EVERYTHING THAT IS

SOMERS

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Nor-

LET US PLACE OUR NEW STYLE MOUNTING ON YOUR EYE-GLASSES. MAKES PUTTING ON AND OFF EASY.

Overstraining of the Optic nerve means permanent injury to the eyesight. We are optemetrist and make a careful examination of the eyes and make glasses that will correct defects. We ask your confidence in our ability and guarantee results. Special bargains for $1.00 Day.

J. F. MARCH OPTOMETRIST and OPTICIAN, 10 Broadway, Norwich, Conn. Phone 1312

Dollar Specials

Genuine Plumb Axes. handled by the veteran William M. Williams, for Wednesday only $1.00 each.

Genuine $1.25 Thermos Pint Bottles, $1.00 for this Special 25 per cent. discount on Kitchenware -Sauce Pans, Hand Basins, Berlin Kettles, Pie Plates, Pails, Lunch Boxes, Broilers, Aluminum Tea Pots, Frying Pans, Clothes Driers, Etc.

10 per cent. discount on Automobile Supplies- Insulated Wire, Champion Spark Plugs, Polarine Motor Oil, Dry Batteries and Fuses.

Special prices on Cutlery, Tools, Chafing Dishes, Skates, Sleds, Electric Fixtures and

129 Main St., Norwich, Ct. STORE OPEN THIS EVENING

WHEN YOU WANT to put your bus-iness before the public, there is no medium better than through the ad-

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Wednesday, Feb. 16, 1916.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light motor vehicle lamps at 5.51 Franklin street was cleared of snow yesterday by the city men.

The first cucumbers of the season, prime ones from Ohio, are in market. Valentine supper at Spiritual academy tonight, 20c.—adv.

Several Norwich men have attended the Hartford Automobile show this The state board of barber examiners is holding session at Norwalk this week. A boy who tried skiing on the Otis Library hill did very well yesterday Government entomoligists have been examining the trees in the neighborhood of Laurel Glenn.

Plans are being made to form a basketball club among the young wo-men of Niantic and Flanders. Some of the Florida oranges received this week are nearly as big as grape fruit, running 46 to the box.

Academy Girls' Glee club concert, Feb. 18, at 8 o'clock, Slater ball. Ad-mission 25c.—adv. St. Margaret's chapter of Trinity Episcopal church has taken work to finish for the next Red Cross box.

The New Haven road is to run number of special trains into New York from Connecticut towns on Washington's Birthday.

The Salvation Army has loaned its amous kettle to the local Red Cross and it is to be set up outside headquarters for contributions large

The meeting of the Mystic Monday club was held this week with Mrs. G. Albert Thompson, formerly of Nor-wich. The study of France was con-

The tax collector will be at the drug store of John A. Morgan, Greeneville, today from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m., to re-ceive personal taxes.—adv. The marriage of Miss Geneva Hag-gerty of New London and Charles Rell-ly of Waterbury will take place at St. Joseph's church, New London, on Thursday, February 24. The womer prayer meeting at the Central Baptist church Tuesday afteroon was made especially interesting by the leader, Mrs. Carl W. Brown, and vas a missionary meeting. to nine hours a day is announced in the sliops of the New Haven road to apply to machinists, blacksmiths, electrical work and carpenters in the car

Local people recalled Tuesday that it was on February 15th, 1898, that the Maine was blown up in Havana harbor and the excitement in Norwich when The Bulletin told the startling news the following morning.

Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22, the Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22, the Connecticut Branch of the Letter Carriers' association will hold a convention and banquet in Meriden. Among the guests will be National President Edward Gainor of Muncie, Tuesday morning, Mrs. William B. Birge, Mrs. William A. Norton and Miss Richards were at the Red Cross room in the Thayer building. During the afternoon, Mrs. Willis Austin and Mrs. Grosvenor Ely

The railroads reporting yesterday cross earnings for the first week of February showed changes compared with last year: Grand Trunk 937,937-151,779, which includes the Central Vermont and New London Northern

In a circular letter to the practicing physicians, Dr. E. C. Chipman, New London's newly appointed health officer calls upon them for their cooperation in the fight against the diphtheria epidemic which he says continues,

At Groton, P. J. Foley, brakeman employed by the Central Vermont rail-way, who fell from a train near Stafford Springs and was seriously injured several weeks ago, was discharged from a New London hospital Monday, and returned to his home

Fifty-enght years ago Sunday Miss. Susan Gould of Hanover, became the bride of William Baker. Today theirs is among the best known families in South Meriden where Mr. Baker continues in the employ of the Cutery company after a period of sixty Installation of the Noank Tierney Cadets, which was to have been held Sunday afternoon, was postponed, as County Director William H. Mc-Guinness of Norwich is confined to his home by the grip. He will be held on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 22, in the Inquiries are coming in from all corners of the world far worsted yarns which is booming business for Eastern Connecticut mills: the neutral countries that were accustomed before the war to get their supplies from the belligerent nations cannot now depend upon these sources.

A stone arch bridge is to be built over East Brook on the Salem and Hadlyme turnpike at Salem. The length of the bridge will be 78 feet, the width 20 feet and the arch span 25 feet. The bridge is to be presented to the town by Mrs. Alfred Mitchell who has a large feet feet. Mitchell, who has a large farm in Sa-Attended Charity Ball at New London A number of local people attended the charity ball held in the state ar-mory, New London, Tuesday evening. It was estimated that there were 2,500 people present. The decorations were elaborate.

Purchases Two-Family House. Through Real Estate Broker John A Moran, James J. Finnegan has pur-chased a two-family house at 26 Mon-roe street, with barn, from Robert Mc-

Before the city of Bridgeport com-mits itself to any settled policy in the disposal of its garbage, it would bet-ter study the situation to see whether a profitable use cannot be made out of it. Even New Haven's somewhat un-savory method of feeding it to hogs is better than throwing it away, or huming in Maridenort Telegraphy

PERSONALS

Edward Smith of Montville was week end guest at John Seymour's in Miss Blanche Patridge of Brewster's Neck has recovered from a serious at-tack of throat trouble.

Mrs. Ruth Beckwith of East Lyme is making a visit to her niece, Mrs. Lena Rogers, in Montville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wyman of Norwich have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Richmond in Mystic. James Dodd of Westerly has been in Norwich because of the death and fu-neral of his father, Thomas Dodd.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dowsett and daughter Dorothy have returned to Mystic from a week end visit in Nor-

Mrs. John M. Newton of Winter Hill, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. B. Pierson of 349 West Main strett.

Julian L. Sussman, who has been spending a few days with his parents in Mohegan, has returned to his home in New York,

Miss Julia Corcoran of Norwich, factory inspector in connection with the labor commissioner's office, has been spending a week in Danbury investigating the conditions under which women are employed in factories and stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wainwright of Dorchester, Mass., formerly of Norwich, gave a dinner party on Sunday in honor of Miss Nellie M. Anderson, who is spending a few days with them. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wainwright, Mrs. Emily Jacobs and Dr. Bradford Kent,

OBITUARY,

Joseph C. Worth. After several months' illness, the life of Joseph C. Worth came to a close at his home, No. 5 Coit street, Tuesday noon, death being due to Bright's disease and heart trouble. In Mr. Worth's passing this city loses one of its most prominent citizens and merchants. For 43 years he conducted a wholesale fruit business in this city.

At the last grange meeting in North Stonington the first and second degrees were conferred upon a class of seven initiates by the Ladies Degree team of the grange.

He was born at Fayal, Azores Islands, on Sept. 7, 1847, and when a boy of 8 years he made his home here with his aunt, Mrs. John Worth. After obtaining his early education here, he took a liking for the water and sailed between here and New York schooner for a short time. In the year of 1873 he entered the wholesale fruit vention and banquet in Meriden.

JOSEPH C. WORTH.

Among the guests will be National President Edward Gainor of Muncie, Ind.

Special convocation of Franklin chapter, No. 4, R. A. M., Thursday, Feb. 17, at Masonic temple. Visitation by grand king. Work in P. M. degree, Refreshments.—adv.

Meriden.

of 1873 he entered the wholesale fruit business under the firm name of J. C. Worth & Co., and assumed the entire control of the business in 1884.

He married Elida N. Williams and with two daughters and one son she survives. The daughters are Mrs. William Hull of New London and Mrs. Noak Lucas of New Britain, and the great the firm name of J. C. son is Joseph daughter, Ethel F. Worth, died in New London Aug. 20, 1915.

Mr. Worth was a member of Uncas lodge, No. 11, I. O. O. F., Norwich Board of Trade, Norwich Chamber of Commerce, and a trustee of the Dime Savings bank.

Mr. Worth was very prominent in the business life of the city and ever held the best interests of the city at heart. He possessed sterling trafts of haracter, a pleasing and amiable disposition, and his loss will be sincerely mourned by all who knew him, Miss Anna Bottom.

The death of Miss Anna Bottom, oc curred Tuesday afternoon in the Sheltering Arms at one o'clock after an illness of about two weeks' dura-tion. Miss Bottom for the past year has been in a feeble condition and death was due to heart trouble. She was born in Norwich 65 years ago, the daughter of George and Marie Storry Bottom. She spent the early part of her life in this vicinity, receiving her education in the public schools of the education in the public schools of the city and also graduated from the Norwich Free Academy. Later on she studied abroad. Miss Bottom is the last of her immediate family, a brother, Henry Bottom, died about two weeks ago and her other brother, brother, Elisha Bottom, died in Chicago a number of years ago. He also was a graduate of the Academy and studied law, gaining prominence in his law practice in Chicago. Miss Bottom is survived by a nephew, Gilbert Bottom of Chicago.

Rendered Unconscious by Fall. Mrs. Tillie Fawe of Yantic met with an accident Monday evening when she slipped while coming out onto the platform of the 7.10 train of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Rail-road, falling headlong onto the plat-form, striking on the left side of the head. She was rendered unconscious, Dr. C. C. Gildersleeve was summoned and had the injured woman conveyed to the Backus hospital for treatment. Her injuries were not so serious as at

To Hear Stereopticon Lectures. At the meeting of the Long Society Community club Wednesday evening it 8 o'clock there will be two stereopticon lectures, one on Washington at Mt. Vernon and the other on Aladdin and His Lamp. The meeting is to be held in the Long Society school house and promises to be an interesting one.

first thought.

Advice for Both.

would have the States adopt some German military Great Britain might emulate of her naval ways with — New York Evening Teleprofit.

Meaning Just Whom?

"Our country needs more timber," says the Cincinnati Enquirer. And some of it needs more horse sense on the subject of preparedness for de-fense.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Valuable Trinity Church Property. The land at the head of Wall street in which Trinity church and cemetery tand, comprises a plot 391 feet long by 227 feet broad, valued at $17,000,

ON THEATRICAL STAGE PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

White Cross Council, K. of C., Presented "The Fortune Hunter" Before Crowded House at Davis Theater-Francis P. McNamara and Miss Mary A. Beckley in the Leading Roles.

(The Fortune Hunter)

Before a crowded house The Fortune Hunter was most admirably presented at the Davis theatre on Tuesday evening under the auspices of White Cross Council, Knights of Columbus, and the members of the large cast showed their appreciative grasp of stage craft in the commendable manner in which they carried out their parts. There was a different stage setting for each of the four acts of the play. For an amateur produc-tion the cast could hardly have been equalled for from the leading man down to the energetic errand boy in the drug store the entire company carried out their roles with much credit, not only to themselves, but also to Fred S. Walsh, under whose personal direction the play was presented, and all are to be warmly complimented upon the decided success attained by their earnest efforts.

As Nathaniel Duncan, the young fortune seeker, Francis P. McNamara was well cast, his droll humor and clearness of enunciation drawing unstinted applause from the large au-

As Betty, the daughter of the druggist-inventor, Miss Mary A. Beckley was sweet and engaging with a nicely was sweet and engaging with a nicely realized sense of proportion in the spirit with which she invested her characterization of the part.

Miss Margaret M. Murphy, who im-personated Josephine Lockwood, the banker's daughter, earned justified applause for her effective and conscientious work.

The part of Angie, the country girl and chum of the banker's daughter, was excellently carried by Miss The-was excellently carried by Miss The-resa V. Coughlin.

Joseph Farrell appeared as Sam Graham, the old druggist who spent most of his time in inventing con-traptions that seldom brought him returns and James Sheridan as the sheriff who "could lick any man but his wife" made a decided hit with the audience.

TEACHERS AND OFFICERS

Sunday School Rooms-W. T. Lane

The teachers and officers of the Broadway Congregational Church Sunday school held a social and supper Central station for a fire at the house Tuesday night in the Sunday School at No. 148 McKinley avenue, owned by rooms. master and called on several who responded in a pleasing manner.

The committee in charge was W. T. Lane, chairman, Miss Hattle Carter, Mrs. William H. Dawley, Mrs. Osten Ferguson, Miss Margurite Wulf and Miss Jane Aiken. The menu was as follows: Potatoes au gratin, meat loaf, sliced ham, pickles, rolls, jelly, fruit salad, cake and coffee.

GAVE MAGAZINE TABLEAUX AT TRINITY M. E. CHURCH.

Novelty Entertainment Presented by C. L. C. Tuesday Evening.

A magazine tableaux carefully executed and given by members of the C. L. C. of the Trinity Methodist Epis-copal Sunday school Tuesday evening in the Sunday school rooms proved to be a real novelty as well as a very pretty and entertaining affair.

The programme represented a magazine, starting with the cover design, the advertisements, then followed the literature, art, music, fashions and advertisements again in the natural order as one would find them on opening a magazine.
Mrs. F. W. Coleman, teacher of the class, had charge of the tableaux and Miss Hazel Banfield furnished the ac-companiments for the singing.

The programme follows: Cover Design, Chrysanthemum, Miss Mary Gray; Gold Medal Flour, Miss Marion Swan; Campbell's Soups, Little Miss Helen Nickerson; Eastman's Ko-dak Girl, Miss Lucy Blackburn; Rogers' Silverware, Mrs. Edwin Wigley; Baker's Cocoa, Miss Marion Braley. Literature—A Reading, Miss Viola

Seavey.
Art—Little Women, Mrs. Coleman,
Mrs. Nickerson, Miss Marion Swan,
Miss Marion Braley, Miss Mary Gray;
The Heroine of Today, Mrs. Clarence Simpson; A Gibson Picture Story Told by a Sleeve, Miss Lucy Blackburn, Herbert Ferguson, Gladstoge Shaw; Another Gibson Picture—Lend a Hand,

Miss Marion Braley, Herbert Ferguson, Master Gilbert Blackburn. Music—Old Fashioned Song, Miss Mary Gray; Love's Old Sweet Song, illustrated by Mrs. Edwin Wigley and Leonard Purvis, soloist, Miss Viola Seavy; plano solo, Miss Hazel Ban-

Fashions 1816-1916-1816 Girl, Miss Mary Gray; 1916 Girl, Miss Lucy Blackburn. Advertising—Dutch Cleanser, Miss Marion Braley; Bon Ami, Mrs. O. H. Nickerson; Kellogg's Corn Flakes, Mrs. Clarence Simpson; Skinner's Satin. Miss Marion Swan; finale-America

George S. Watts on Pleasure Trip.

I Love You, entire class; soloist, Miss Mary Gray; Miss Columbia, Miss Lucy

Blackburn: Uncle Sam, Leonard Pur

George S. Watts, former treasurer of he Hopkins & Allen Arms company, eft for New York Tuesday afternoon and from there he intends to go south on a pleasure trip, expecting to arrive back in Norwich on April 1st. He will go to Lake City, Fla., and St. Peters-burg on Tampa bay. Mrs. Watts is

Harry Kellogs, a rising young fi-nancier, Michael Sweeney The Characters in Radville, Pa. Hi, a Radville gossip, Patrick McMahon Watty, partner, same business, Louis Combies

The cast was as achews:

Robbins, Kellog's servant, Wm. Harrington

Betty Graham, the druggist's daughter, Miss Mary A. Beckley
Tracy Tanner, a liveryman's son,
Thomas Sheehan Mr. Lockwood, the banker, Michael J. Curran Roland Barnette, the bank clerk, Frank Leonard Sam Graham, an old druggist, Joseph Sheridan

Mr. Sperry, a drummer,

Joseph Farrell Pete Willing, the deputy sheriff,
James Sheridan
Josephine Lockwood, the banker's daughter, Miss Margaret M. Murphy daughter, Miss Margard, Angle, a country girl,
Miss Theresa V. Coughlin
Herman, errand boy in drug store,
John J. Sullivan

The scene of Act 1 was laid in Harry Kellogg's apartment, New York Samuel Graham's drug store in Rad-ville, Penn. Act 3 showed the new drug store, "the best in the state" as Nat put it, about 10 months later and the scene of the final act was laid in the house and grounds of Sam Graham's home

Between Acts I and 2 there were ex-cellently rendered vocal solos by Miss Catherine Butler and John J. Sullivan. Miss Butler's selections were Yesterday and Today and The Birth of a Morn, the latter being an encore. Mr. Sullivan rendered Somewhere Voice is Calling and his encore was Carry Me Back to Old Virginny. Miss Nellie J. Buckley and Nicholas J. Spellman were the soloists between acts 2 and 3. Miss Buckley's selection was Macushla and she gave as her encore, My Lover He Comes on a Skee. A Dream was the title of the selection rendered by Mr. Spellman, his encore being Absent. During the brief intermission between the last two acts Miss Sadie Driscoll rendered a Spanish song, Carita, and she re-sponded to an encore by singing Why. Mrs. Elizabeth Danihy was the ac-

Mrs. Elizabeth Danny was companist for the soloists.

The general committee in charge of the arrangements comprised William Burch 80 Harrington, John J. Sullivan, Joseph Gruecue 76 Keneth 89 Sheridan, Joseph Burns, Dr. T. A. Crowley, Walter Casey, James Sheridan, J. A. Desmond.

The soda fountain and some of the other stage furnishings were made by Morris Geary. Stage furnishings were generously loaned by The Porteous & Mitchell Co., Shea & Burke, M. Hourigan & Sons, Ring & Sisk, Smith's Prescription Store, Daniel F. Sullivan, Wauregan House, A. C. Swan Co., Moore, the florist, and costumes for the play were provided by The Porteous & Mitchell Co., S. Kronig & Son, Mrs. Crowley, Miss Dunleavy.

M'KINLEY AVENUE HOUSE

DAMAGED BY FIRE Telephone Call Followed by Bell Alarm At Broadway Congregational Church Called Out Department on Tuesday

a telephone call was received at the

W. T. Lane acted as toast- W. E. Gilbert and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Munz. The call was received with the understanding that the chimney was on fire, and the autopumper responded. Just as the pumper arrived on the scene an alarm was sent in from box 38, McKinley avenue and Broad street, by William Spalding. When the firemen coupled on to the nearest hydrant they found that the hydrant was frozen, owing to the extremely cold weather. Hot water was secured from neighbors and was used in thawing out the hydrant. The pumper was sent to the hydrant on Rockwell street, where connections were made and streams drawn under the pressure of the pumper. The pumper was started in order to insure plants of water. plenty of water. About this time the Broad street hydrant was thawed out and a stream was employed from this hydrant in connection with the other two streams. A second alarm was sent in from box 38 by Chief H. L. Stanton, calling out additional companies, and under the direction of the chief the companies direction of the chief the companies responding to the two bell alarms fought the fire with chemical until the hydrant streams could be applied to the flames. The firemen did excellent work with the chemical in holding the fire until the hydrant streams were ap-

The fire started in the cellar near the boiler and spread to the roof, which was burned through in several ture will amount to considerable, but both Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Munz carry full insurance. With a pressure of 55 pounds at the Rockwell street hydrant the autopumper threw two streams, one three inch nd the other two and a half inches, at a pressure of 135 pounds. This was the first time the pumper had been employed at a fire and fully demonstrated ts great value.

The damage to the house and furni-

Neighbors supplied the firemen with not coffee, for which they felt very This is just the time of year that fires are likely to occur from over-heated furnaces and stoves, and Chief Stanton emphas izes the need of promptly sending in alarms so that the flames may be checked before they gain headway.

A. D. LATHROP VICE PRESIDENT Norwich Man Chosen For Office at Annual Meeting of State Fair Di-

Colonel William H. Hall evoked the applause of the directors of Connecti-cut Agricultural Fairs who were prescut Agricultural Fairs who were present at the annual meeting of the association of directors in the capitol at Hartford on Tuesday, when he announced that he would give $125 if the state board of agriculture would give a similar amount for prizes to be offered at agricultural fairs this be offered at agricultural fairs this year. Heretofore the prizes have been $50 and $25 and it was the general opinion that they had been too small to create an interest in the exhibits. Colonel Hall, as president of the association occupied the chair. He suggested that the three prizes should be a second for the bear of the bear of the second for the second fo

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edward's Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the processful substitute for calomel—

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. George Burnham, a promoter,
Dr. T. A. Crowley
James Long, Jeremiah Sweeney
Lawrence Miller, John H. Cunningham
Two young Wall Street men
Nathaniel Duncan, Nat, the Fortune Hunter, Francis P. McNamara
Willie Bartlett, a millionaire's son,
Raoul Bellefieur tating.
No one who takes Olive Tablets is a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their clive color. with clive cil; you will know them by their clive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Cilve Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

gists.
The Olive Tablet Company, Colum-

its in the state as follows First prize, $100; second, $75; third, $50; and fourth, $25. The matter was left to the executive committee of the asso-the executive committee of the association.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Robert Scoville, of Salisbury; vice presidents, W. H. Webster, of Berlin, and A. D. Lathrop of Norwich; secretary, L. H. Healey; treasurer, J. G. Schwink of North Woodstock; executive committee, C. E. Hough, Litchfield country, C. F. Spencer, Middlesex county, M. J. Friend, Windham, J. A. Sherwood, Fairfield, W. J. Rathzeber, New Haven, and J. W. Stark, New London county.

RECORD TURNS TABLES ON WESTERLY SUN

Newspaper Five Evened Up the Series at Aetna Alleys.

The Norwich Evening Record bowling five turned tables on the Westerly Sun Tuesday evening at the Aetna alleys and won all three strings, thus evening up the series, Hiscox scored high single, 118, and Weston Pullen captured high total, 290. Both are of the local newspaper dele-gation. Each team has won a match and the deciding match will be rolled here at some future date.

Following the match the Westerly scribes were royally entertained to supper at the Wauregan house and they returntd home on the last car not very down hearted for losers. The results:

Westerly Sun 87 —276 73 —221 90 —250 78 —255 ****** 77 86 -267 426 429 414 1269 Norwich Evening Record. Lafleur ..... 87 W. Pullen .....192 77 - 251101 —251 101 —290 91 —278 77 —278 83 —243 B. Pullen ..... 92

480 431 429 1340 CITY COURT CASES. One Man Discharged, Two Went to

Hiscox .......118 Crowell ...... 81

Suspended in One Other Case. The case of a young man who was accused of carrying a watch around with him that belonged to Joseph Reiller of 231 Yantic street was nolled by About 11.30 o'clock Tuesday morning day morning. Sheriff Stanton was ap-pointed guardian of the accused, as he B. Riley of Waterbury, being unable to pay a bill of $9.75 for intoxication, was sent to jail. James Rogers, who failed to appear in court Monday morning to face a charge of intoxication, paid $8,90. James Devlin was sentenced to jail for 60 days for failing to support his wife and two children, but judgment was suspended and the case continued until March 15. Octave Piquard of Lynn, Mass., was fined $2 and costs for intoxication, and he went to jail to work out the fine.

FUNERALS.

Frederick H. Smith. The funeral of Frederick H. Smith was held from the funeral parlors of Church and Allen, 15 Main street, on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with relatives and friends in attendance, Rev. Joseph Cobb officiated. There were many beautiful flowers including a form, Gates Ajar, from shopmates of the Hopkins and Allen Arms company.

Among the flowers were the follow ing: Spray of roses and carnations from J. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Chapel and Mrs. Hunt; spray of car nations, Mr. and Mrs. Whitmarsh, J. Connolley; spray of carnations, Mrs. Irene Babcock and family; wreath, Miss Burlingame and Mrs. Rudd; spray of carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Treadway spray of carnation, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smith; pillow inscribed Neighbors llow inscribed Husband; form, E. W. O'Brien; lilies and carnations, Mr and Mrs. L. N. Smith; spray of carnaand Mrs. L. N. Smith; spray of carnations marked Uncle, Claude E. Smith; spray of carnations, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Rogers and L. D. Rogers; spray of violets, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Meech; spray of roses, Mr. and Mrs. Isham and Mrs. Crowe; pillow inscribed Brother, Albert Smith; wreath inscribed Fred, from Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien; carnations, Mr. Ladd. The bearers were Isaac Cook, Edward O'Brien, Luman, Smith and Albert Smith, Burial was in Maplewood cemetery where Rev. Mr. Cobb read a cemetery where Rev. Mr. Cobb read a committal service.

committal service.

Mrs. Maurice Barry.

The funeral of Annie McIntyre, widow of Maurice Barry, took place from her late home, No. 66 Baltic street, Monday morning at 8.16 o'-clock. Services were conducted in St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock with Rev. Myles P. Galvin officiating. At the close of the mass Mrs. Frank L. Farrell sang two hymns. The bearers were William Burns, John and James McClafferty, Francis J. and John Looby, Jr., and Maurice Looby.

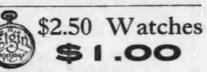

Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery. Undertaker M. Hourigan had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The Square Meal. Our language is a riddle. A man will eat a pound of round steak, s pyramid of mashed potatoes, half a dozen oval biscuits, a triangle of pie, drink two cups of flat coffee-then call it a square meal.-Toledo Blade.

Guilford.—Capt. Arthur Jensen, keep-er of the Faulkner Island light, re-cently met with a painful accident while starting the engine of his boat when it backfired, breaking Mr. Jen-

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET Opposite Post Office. Phone 321-2 Lady Assistant

$2.00 Vest and Waldermar Chains, Gold Top Knives with 2 $2.50 $2.50 Men's and Ladies' Rings, $1.00 $2.50 Men's and Ladies' Rings, $1.00 $2.00 Lockets, Lavillieres and Chains, $1.00. $1.75 Alarm Clocks, varieties, $1.00 WATCH THE WINDOW UNTIL THE 26TH.

J. OGULNICK & CO. 32 Franklin Street Phone 714-12

To give all an equal opportunity I will say I shall have in my Dollar Sale six very handsome

Leather Vanity Cases

that sold for $3.50 and $4.00 each. I have only six of these, no more.

COME EARLY

GEO. A. DAVIS 25 Broadway

Poor Kind of Reformation. "I hates to see a man braggin' 'bout how he has reformed," said Uncle Jail, One Paid, and Judgment Was Eben, "simply because de doctor told him he's goneter die ef he don't quit drinkin.

Uncle Eben. "A man allus gits caught at it," said Uncle Eben, "when he tries to say sumpin' spiteful disguised as a joke, but a lot o' folks keep on tryin' it tent: A farmer should let his wife retire from the strenuous life at the same time he does .- Atchison Globe.

Equal Rights on the Farm-

We are for equal rights to this ex-

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dan-druff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all drandruft

MRS. S. COMSTOCK 36 CHURCH STREET Doilies, Centre Pieces and Latest Designs in Embroidery Patterns.

disappears and the hair stops coming

DR. SHAHAN Specialist on Diseases of the Blood and Stomach.

Rheumatism (including Neuritis), Skin Troubles, Bloody Sputum, Rundown Conditions, Premature Aging, Hardening of the Arterles. Culture treatment only, for Blood diseases, Simple and reliable prevention of Typhoid, Rables and Lockjaw.

Hours: 10-11 a. m.; 2-4 and 7-8 p. m. No outside visits, after 8 p. m.

Fountain Pens

Did you know that we can supply you with a Fountain Pen to fit any need?

Fins, Medium, Coarse, Narrow Stub, Oblique Stub, Manifolding, are some of the points that we Waterman's - Autofillers -

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

JEWELERS. Established 1872 144 Main Street